Dear Mr. Fraithwaite:-

My dear Mr. Fraithwaite:-

How about those prints that you have been going to make for me for several months? It strikes me that I have waited a pretty long time for them, and I want them very badly. Can you not manage to let me have them soon?

Dear Mr. Briathewaite:-

It seems to me I have waited a very long time for the few prints that you are to make for me. Can you not let me have them soon? I have been expecting them for the last five or six months, and I do not think that I am unreasonable in beginning to feel a little impatient.

Very truly yours,
